INTRODUCTION

An Index to Hagerstown Newspapers is a subject and personal name index to local and regional news printed in a select group of weekly and semiweekly English language newspapers published in Hagerstown between 1790 and 1890. Geographically, it indexes news of what are now Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Garrett counties, Maryland; Adams, Franklin and Fulton counties, Pennsylvania; and Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan counties, West Virginia. This volume covers January 1, 1810 through December 31, 1814 of the Maryland Herald and Hagerstown Weekly Advertiser and January 1, 1810 through June 15, 1813 of the Hagerstown Gazette.

The project compiles the index from available microfilm copies of the newspapers with an effort to locate the most complete films. An attempt has been made to cover the major newspapers of the period rather than all the titles published. Not included, therefore, are several papers which survived only a short while and were not merged into the more established titles which were forerunners of the Morning Herald, Daily Mail and Herald-Mail. For a discussion of the publications of the era, see History of Western Maryland by J. Thomas Scharf published in 1882; A History of Washington County by Thomas J. C. Williams published in 1906; or "Early Maryland Newspapers" compiled by George C. Keidel in Maryland Historical Magazine, volumes XXVIII, XXIX and XXX.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF NEWSPAPERS: 1810-1814

The first newspaper in Elizabeth-Town was the Washington Spy, started in 1790 by Stewart Herbert and published until early 1797. On March 2, 1797, Thomas Grieves published "Proposals of Continuing the Publication of a Weekly Newspaper in Elizabeth-Town" and so started the Maryland Herald and Elizabeth-Town Advertiser.

The name of the paper indicated the nature of its content in that a large portion of it was devoted to advertisements and legal notices. The front page contained national and international news copied from other newspapers. Occasionally, ads also appeared on this page. The second page continued the first, except during election campaigns when letters to the editor or news of local events might appear. The third page was the usual location of local news and was the place a subscriber expected to see his ad appear for the first time. Literary pieces and subsequent appearances of ads composed the fourth page. There were infrequent editions which had a fifth page containing election messages or legislation and some ads.

The paper underwent two name changes before 1804. By 1805 the title of the paper was Maryland Herald and Hagers-Town Weekly Advertiser, which it kept until at least 1824. It had a "pro-Jefferson" editorial stance. The title reflected the popular usage of "Hagers-Town" for Elizabeth-Town, and may have helped influence the Maryland General Assembly's decision of January 1814 to change the town name. Thus letters, ads, and general articles may contain the heading Hagers-Town while articles, prior to 1814 concerning the town and its officials, are indexed under the legal name, Elizabeth-Town. After January 1, 1814, they appear under the heading Hagers-Town.

In 1809, a second weekly publication was started, The Hagers-Town Gazette. This paper had a Federalist leaning and its format was similar to that of its competitor. Its editor was William Brown. The editors of both papers frequently attacked the other in print and kept track of each other's printing errors. The last known issue of the Hagers-Town Gazette is June 15, 1813. Brown was publishing the Cumberland Gazette in January 1814.

Shortly after the end of the Hagers-Town Gazette, a number of prominent men raised the capital to start the Torch Light and Public Advertiser. Its first editor was William D. Bell. The earliest mention of the paper was in December 1814, although it is presumed to have started in late 1813. Unfortunately, there are no extant copies of the Torch Light, as it was commonly called, until the 1817 issues.

This volume of the index has been prepared from microfilmed copies of the newspapers January 3, 1810, Vol. 13, No. 671 through December 28, 1814, Vol. 18, No. 931 of the Maryland Herald and Hager's-Town Weekly Advertiser and January 2, 1810, Vol. 1, No. 34 through June 15, 1813, Vol. 5, No. 39 of the Maryland Herald and Hagers-Town Weekly Gazette. The April 17, 1811 issue of the Maryland Herald and Hagers-Town Weekly Advertiser was indexed from the paper itself, which is not on microfilm but only available at the Washington County Historical Society. The July 17, 1811 issue of the same title was not indexed, but pages 3 and 4 are available at the Library of Congress. Every effort has been made to locate the other papers not on film. Papers missing include: December 19, 1810 through January 9, 1811; February 20, 1811 through September 11, 1811; November 13, 1811; December 4 and 11, 1811; January 1 and 8, 1812; April 22, 1812; June 24, 1812 through July 29, 1812; and October 21, 1812 through February 3, 1813 of the Maryland Herald and Hagers-Town Weekly Advertiser.

Unfortunately, some of the papers have articles or entire pages missing. A list of damaged papers includes: March 14 and November 21, 1810; September 18, November 6 and December 25, 1811; February 26, April 15 and May 27, 1812; January 5 and August 31, 1814 of the Maryland Herald and Hagers-Town Weekly Advertiser. The June 18, 1811, August 25, 1812 and June 15, 1813 issues of the Hagers-Town Gazette are missing pages 3 and 4.

The microfilm for these papers is owned by the Washington County Free Library and is available for public use on the 3rd floor of the Alice Virginia and David W. Fletcher Branch in Hagerstown.

HOW TO USE THIS INDEX

Subject headings are arranged in one alphabetical listing and include personal names, businesses, occupations, organizations, buildings, geographical locations; the names of governing bodies, agencies, boards and commissions; and a wide range of topics reflecting the news coverage of the Maryland Herald and Elizabeth-Town Weekly Advertiser and Hagers-Town Gazette.

The newspapers were four unnumbered pages in length and four columns across. In order to facilitate the location of an article, the pages have been referred to as numbers 1 through 4, and the columns as letters A, B, C and D.

Under the desired subject heading, the user will find one or more citations similar to the following examples:

(1)
CRIME - HOMICIDE

JAN 3 1810	2D	MH	(7)	(8)
(2) (3) (4) (5) (6)			ON SATURDAY LAST... (BRANN COMMITTED TO JAIL ON CHARGE OF MURDER).
			SUBJ: BRANN, EDWARD
			(9) WASHINGTON COUNTY GOVT-JAIL

(1) Subject Heading

(2) Month

(3) Day

(4) Year

(5) Page and Column

(6) Newspaper (MH for Maryland Herald and Elizabeth-Town Weekly Advertiser, HG for Hagers-Town Gazette)

(7) Title

(8) Added Information:

(AD) Advertisement

(EDIT) Editorial

(LTR) Letter to the Editor

( ) Parenthetical expression added to clarify or augment
the content of the article

(9) Selected listing of up to two other subject headings under which the article is also indexed.

Cross references have been included to help the user find not only the desired subjects but also related materials:

DOCTORS
SEE PHYSICIANS

LAWSUITS
SEE ALSO CRIME-LIBEL AND SLANDER

Government agencies and officials are organized as subdivisions under the heading for the appropriate political unit of which they are a part:

WASHINGTON COUNTY GOVT – SHERIFF

UNITED STATES GOVT – POST OFFICE

The following list is a selected list of abbreviations used:

Please see a Librarian at the Information Desk on the 3rd floor for assistance in obtaining microfilm of the desired newspaper.

News Coverage

The index provides access to all items of local and regional significance, including coverage of the following:

- (1) Advertisements (e. g., description of goods and services offered; removal to a new place of business; reward offered for runaway; etc.)
- (2) Legal notices (e. g., announcements of estate sales, commission meetings, estate settlements, etc.)
- (3) Elections
- (4) Census
- (5) Crimes
- (6) Marriage and death notices
- (7) Editorials and letters to the editor concerning topics of local or regional significance.
- (8) Weather
- (9) Agricultural market prices
- (10) All names of persons or land tracts mentioned in the above contexts.

In general, omissions from the index include articles of national and foreign news, texts of legislature and political speeches, works of fiction and poetry, and political commentary unless items in any of these categories are of local or regional significance.

Of Special Note

Advertisements

While the same advertisement may appear repeatedly over an extended period of time, it will only be indexed once, generally in the issue in which it first appeared. Ads offering real estate include the location of the land in the parenthetical expression of the title line.

Personal Names

Because most personal names have been included exactly as they were found printed in the newspaper, there may be more than one subject heading for the same individual. For example, CASEY, SARA; CASEY, S.; CASEY, SARAH; and CASEY, MRS. Could all refer to the same individual. The user should therefore check all possible combinations and spellings to ensure finding the desired information. Names such as McNeal or VanHorne are entered without a space between the two portions of the name so that they file in strict alphabetical order.

Place Names

While the place name has been copied as it appears in print, from advertisements, articles on government agencies and events will appear under the location's legal name (e. g., Elizabeth-Town for Hagerstown).
