This action was commenced by the service of Summons and Petition on the defendant. A restraining Order was passed enjoining the defendant from interfering with the Petitioner until further Order of this Court. The defendant came in and served a verified answer in which he admitted all of the allegations of the Petition. It appears from the verified Petition of the Petitioner that the defendant had at the time of the attempted marriage to Petitioner another wife from whom the bonds of matrimony had never been disolved and that this marriage was null and void. The defendant admits this in his verified answer but says that he thought the marriage to his first wife had been annuled by the Army Authoriyies but that he found out that it had not.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the attempted marriage between Ethel Wiley Hammer and Charles Berle Hammer performed at Hagerstown, Maryland on the 30th. day of June, 1945 be and the same is declared to be null, void and of no effect and the same is authorized to be cancelled of record by the proper authorities and the Petitioner be placed back in the same status as before the attempted marriage ceremony.
