Licence for to Marry Maud Chriswell you are not to issue them for Chriswell is their father & that is all I took them before they were 4 yrs & I have had them ever since & worked & slaved my self to raise them & there father never gave me 1 penny towards raising them I took them as my own & raised them as my own Chriswell took one & persuaded her to get married & she was not 17 yrs old & I knew nothing of it until it was done this Straithoff came to my to my house to borrow 50¢ to get floor for John Weaver but I found out since it was for to get the License they were twins John Weaver Married one & this one Maud is a poor Delicate Cripple & he certainly is a terrible looking person there father got the other License from you but if he comes there to buy

Dear Sir,

In reference to the subject of the enclosed letter, I beg to advise you that my client, Mrs. Eva V. Nestor, informs me that the minister who married her and C. V. Nester, not C. B. Nestor, was a Reverend Evans of the United Bretheren Church.

I trust this will furnish you with the necessary information to secure a return of the license so that I may get a copy.

Yours very truly,
