Dear Sir:-

much to my regrets and embarassment, after it is too late, I notice across the edge of license form no 4 enclosed I have violated your instructions by performing the marridge of designated couple. Part of my mistake due to relying upon the intigrity of said couple. I am not aware as to whether they knew their wrong.

I have been marring couples from this point since 1920 when having been granted authority by Page county court to render such service. And this is the first time I have incurd difficulty.

I don't know what this will result in. Whether it will stand as it is, pending any future difficulty which may arise, or if what has already happened requires adjustment.

Your consideration and cooperation will be duply appreciated.

I hope no further difficulty will arise. I certainly have not desire to violate any ruling, and want to do what is right about what has already happened.

You may know Mr Robert Huffman the Page county court clerk. I refer you to him, and Judge Woodward to the Page county court, as to my integrity.

Again, expressing sincere regrets and asking your favor and that of other concerned, I remain

Fraternally
J. F. Tucker

G. Merlin Snyder, Clerk

November 9, 1964.

Rev. J. E. Tucker,
Stanley, Virginia.

Dear Rev. Tucker:-

The Honorable D. K. McLaughlin, Chief Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of the State of Maryland, informed me that no person within the State of Maryland shall be joined in marriage until a license shall have been obtained from the Circuit Court for the County in which the marriage is to be performed. Article 62, Section 4 of Annotated Code of Maryland - "The marriage ceremony must be performed in the County where license was issued."

The Maryland Laws provide that any Minister of the Gospel or official of religious order or body authorized by the rules and customs of said order or body to join persons in marriage are authorized to solemnize a marriage in the State of Maryland.

Your copies are enclosed. Probably you could perform the marriage in Williamsport, Washington County, Maryland, or have the party to secure another license.

Very truly yours,

GMS/HW
