1000 Books Before Kindergarten Kick-Off
Saturday, January 12
10 AM-1 PM
The Washington County Free Library’s 1000 Books Before Kindergarten program encourages families to read at least 1000 books with their young children before they enter kindergarten. The program, open to any child aged birth to five years, is self-paced and the end date is your child’s first day of kindergarten. 1000 books seems like a lot but if you read one book a day, you will meet your goal in under three years. If you read three books each day, you could reach your goal in one year! Visit your local library for more details and to register for the program!

Check washcolibrary.org for all branch Kick-Off times!

1000 Books Before Kindergarten
Saturday, January 12 • 9:30-11:30 AM
Learn more about a new program and enjoy activities encouraging reading for our youngest patrons and their families.

Nearly a 100 years ago, in May 1920, the middle car of a trolley had brake failure on its way to Waynesboro from Pen Mar and crashed. Many riders and workers were injured, and two men were killed, including the Manager of the CGW Electric Railway Co., Robert D. Sefton. It was later determined that the departure of the car was too soon after the first one, not giving enough space to avoid an accident. Learn more at digital.whilbr.org.
