Terms & Conditions

I certify that I am either a resident of Washington County, or have a valid Washington County Free Library card. I understand that if it is discovered that this is not the case, my entry will be disqualified. I also certify that the piece of written work that I am submitting is my own original work. I understand that if it is discovered that my piece is plagiarized, my entry will be disqualified. I understand that in the event that I place in the contest, I retain all copyright to my original work, and it will be used only for the purpose of printing in an anthology for fellow winners. This anthology is not available for public circulation, but can be viewed at the library upon request.
