A MESSAGE FROM Our Director

This spring offers opportunities to explore our shared history and celebrate the arts. We're excited to welcome acclaimed graphic novelist Kazu Kibuishi of Amulet fame for a special author visit and teen illustration workshop, to host engaging talks through our McCauley Lecture series, as well as long standing programs like storytimes and craft evenings.

Washington County Free Library is also proud to take part in Washington County's 250th celebrations. Programs tied to America's 250th anniversary—like the America 250 learning series, take-and-make kits, and history-themed events—invite patrons of all ages to discover the stories that shaped our nation and our community. And as always, we look forward to seeing many of you at WCFL's signature events, including National Library Week and our upcoming Enchantment in the Sky Gala. Thank you for making the library a vital part of your lives and for helping us build a strong, connected community.

Celebrating America & Washington County

In the year 2026, the United States of America and our very own Washington County will both celebrate the historic milestone of their 250th anniversaries. Let's take an opportunity to reflect on our rich heritage, honor our achievements, and look forward to an even brighter future by attending events and programs throughout the county.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

Our group is growing

Did you know the Washington County Free Library has a growing Friends of the Library group?

The Friends are a nonprofit arm of the library system, that's committed to advocating for awareness about literacy, learning, and inclusion, raising funds for library classes and projects, and volunteering at library events.

April 19-25 is Library Awareness Week. This year's theme is "Find Your Joy," which is so appropriate for how we feel about reading and what the library provides to our community! Friends of the Library will have a table set up all week long at the Fletcher Library in Downtown Hagerstown, where you can find out more about what we do and consider becoming a member. Or, scan the QR code, or visit <https://www.washcolibrary.org/about-us> and click on "Support Your Library."

A few exciting events coming up:

March 5: Friends of the Library Meetup. A chance to meet fellow bookworms, enjoy happy hour, and pizza from Rad Pies. Bring a friend! 4-6 PM Cushwa Brewery, Williamsport. Free.

March 21: Enchantment in the Sky: A Fairytale Costume Gala annual fundraiser. 6:30 PM Fletcher Library. Tickets are available at www.washcolibrary.org/fundraiser-2026

Library POWER USERS!

THERAPY RABBITS IN THE TEENS DEPARTMENT

BY BONNIE L. RAMSBURG

For the past year, Kelly Kettering has been bringing in her certified therapy Lionhead rabbits, Bleu and Cheddar, for a monthly Digital Detox session. She shares, "I love offering animal therapy to teens at the library because it creates a space for relaxation, connection, and joy. Animals have a unique ability to provide comfort without judgment, helping teens unwind from stress and feel more at ease. It's truly heartwarming to witness shy or anxious teens open up, smile, and engage. Bringing this experience to the library makes a meaningful difference, and I'm grateful to be part of it."

Fifteen-year-old Zoey, a regular in the section, expresses her appreciation, saying, "They make me so calm and happy. I love bunnies!" Even security guard Celena finds joy in the rabbits. After a quick visit during her rounds, she remarks, "I needed that. I looked at them and felt the warmth, and I knew it was going to be a great evening. Now I can get through the next two hours of my shift!"

Through the therapy rabbit program, Kelly and her rabbits are making a significant impact on the lives of teens at the library, creating a nurturing space for healing and connection. This initiative not only enriches the library experience but also fosters a sense of community and well-being among all who participate.

Teen patron, Zoey, with Bleu, the Rabbit.
