FRIENDS of the LIBRARY

MEMBERSHIP

Who are the Friends?

The purpose of the FRIENDS is to focus public attention on library services and needs; raise funds for special programs and events; enhance the cultural and literary environment; and encourage gifts, memorials, and endowments for the benefit of the library.

The FRIENDS meet at the Alice Virginia and David W. Fletcher Branch Library located at 100 South Potomac St., Hagerstown, MD. Meetings are open to all members and to those considering joining.

Please visit washcolibrary.org for meeting dates and times and to follow the Friends of WCFL link for news and updates.

Consider joining a committee:

Membership:

Focuses on increasing membership in the FRIENDS and on creating awareness of the goals and mission of the library through advocacy efforts.

Fundraising:

Develops and assists in fundraising opportunities including an annual fundraising campaign.

Foreign Language/Culture Classes:

Assists teacher with these summer classes serving in teacher aid capacity.

Volunteer:

Recruits volunteers to assist with library programs and events as needed.

Why join the Friends?

Your FRIENDS membership helps:

Demonstrate community support for library branches throughout Washington County.

Advocate to help preserve library funding at county & state hearings.

Promote library use, reading, literacy and intellectual freedom.

Organize and sponsor programs like foreign language and culture classes for children, summer reading clubs for children, teens & adults, annual writing contests, and other programs throughout the year.

Provide volunteers to help at library events.
